Part V: Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and answer the questions.

Camping is a brilliant hobby that allows people to escape the noisy city and connect with nature. It involves packing a tent, some food, and sleeping bags, and spending one or more nights outdoors. People usually go camping in forests, near lakes, or on mountains. When you go camping, there are many fun activities to do. You can go hiking to explore the woods, go fishing in the lake, or just sit around the campfire singing songs and sharing stories. Sleeping in a tent under the stars is a very special experience. Waking up to the sound of birds singing and breathing the fresh morning air makes you feel completely refreshed.

However, camping also requires good preparation and survival skills. You must know how to set up a tent, start a fire safely, and read a map. The weather can be changeable, so packing warm clothes and raincoats is necessary. Also, campers must respect nature. They should clean up their campsite before leaving and never leave any trash behind. If you love adventure and the outdoors, camping is an exciting and memorable hobby.

25. People usually go camping in the center of busy cities. _____
26. Sitting around the campfire is one of the activities you can do. _____
27. You don't need any special skills to go camping. _____
28. Campers should leave their trash at the campsite. _____
29. What is the main idea of the passage? _____

- A. Buying the best camping tent
- B. An overview of camping and what it involves
- C. The dangers of wild animals
- D. How to cook food over a campfire

30. According to the passage, what should you do because the weather can be changeable?
- A. Build a very big fire
 - B. Sleep in a hotel
 - C. Pack warm clothes and raincoats
 - D. Stay at home
