- with just, already and yet to talk about things we have or haven't done recently.
We've just finished eating. I haven't read that book yet.

- to talk about an action or situation which started in the past and continues into the present. We use for and since to say how long it has been happening.
How long have you lived here?
I've lived here since 2005.

How long have you lived here?
I've lived here since 2005.

We use the past simple:

- to talk about an action that happened in the past.
My brother won a competition.
- when we are interested in when the action happened.
My brother won the competition last week.

We can also use the past simple:

- to talk about experiences which happened over a time in the past.
When my dad lived in France for a month, he didn't learn French. (= this time is finished. My dad doesn't live in France now.)
Remember, when we ask questions about a time in the past, we use When ...?
When did you learn to ride a bike?
I learned to ride a bike when I was five years old.
