

I LIVE FOR HER (part 1)

I live for her, do you know since?
Since the first time I found her
I don't remember how
But she entered me and there she remained
I live for her because she makes
My soul shake strong
I live for her and it's not a burden

I havethe as you
One that I will never me
It doesn't what I
I this will deceive me
It doesn't how I go
Or all of the..... I know
But now it's to me again

She's a muse that invites us
(I know could be sweeter)
Through a piano
Death is far
I live for her

(..... with my love I cope
With all the and all the
You are the who gives me hope
In this of love and madness)
It's a punch that never hurts...

I live for her, I know she makes
Me travel from city to city
Suffer a little, but at least I live

(I can the playing)
I live for her in the hotels
(Something deep me saying)
I live for her in the vortex
I go through my voice
It expands and produces love
