

Unit 4

	(noun) a man or woman whose job is performing in plays or films
	(noun) the group of people who are watching or listening to a performance
	(noun) The _____ in a film, play or book are the people in it.
	(noun) a set of clothes worn by an actor
	(noun) a hanging piece of material that can be pulled across a window or stage
	(noun) a lamp or other device that gives out brightness
	(noun) coloured creams and powders that women and actors put on their faces (noun) a performance with dialogues, usually at a theatre.
	(noun) the written version of a play or film
	(noun) in a theatre, this is the raised platform where the actors or entertainers perform.

Unit 4

	(phrasal verb) is quiet and does not show any worry or excitement.
	(phrasal verb) to make somebody feel better and happier than they were (phrasal verb) to take part in an activity
	(phrasal verb) to move your eyes
	(phrasal verb) remove your clothes
	(phrasal verb) wear a piece of clothing to see if it fits
	(phrasal verb) to start the flow of electricity, gas, water, etc. by moving a switch, button, etc.
	(phrasal verb) to feel anxious about problems or unpleasant things
	(noun) a structure with walls and a roof
	(noun) a play or a film that uses songs and dance to tell the story
	(noun) a play in which the words are sung rather than spoken
	(noun) something you can sit on