My name is Ela. I live in a small village in the countryside. It's very peaceful and quiet here. I wake up to the sound of birds every morning. There isn't any traffic, and the air is clean. I usually go to school by bike because it's close to my house. In the afternoons, I help my parents in the garden. Life here is simple, but sometimes it's boring because there aren't many cafés or shopping centers.

My cousin Deniz lives in Istanbul. She says life in the city is exciting but stressful. There are a lot of places to go — cinemas, concerts, and restaurants. However, she spends hours in traffic every day and misses the fresh air of the countryside.

- a. Where does Ela live?
.....
- b. What does Ela like about her village?
.....
- c. What problem does Deniz have in the city?
.....
- d. What are two advantages of living in the city according to Deniz?
