

Тест для сайта liveworksheets

1. Find information about what family traditions are. Answer _____

A) The usual norms, behaviors, and attitudes that are accepted within the family, which are passed down from generation to generation — something that is unique to your family.

B) Family and family traditions are the foundation of children's upbringing.

C) Such events allow even the youngest family members to feel important and significant, as they are part of a family tradition!

2. Find which paragraph lists the family traditions. Answer _____

a) 1 paragraph

b) 2 paragraph

c) 3 paragraph

3. Find information about “passing thing down from generation to generation” tradition. Answer _____

a) Even if you haven't received anything, choose something symbolic and start the old tradition of passing things down from generation to generation.

b) Preserving family memories - an old photo album in which you won't forget to include shared photos.

c) Visit museums, exhibitions, performances, and good movies together with your family.

4. Find information about “Family plans” tradition. Answer _____

a) Bedtime stories that, as children grow up, can turn into the interesting and informative stories.

b) This is when, on a certain day of the month/week, the whole family gathers for tea/ice cream/pizza (the list can go on) and spends time together.

c) The tradition of setting the table together for dinner.

5. Find in the second paragraph how traditions help people. Answer _____

a) The usual norms, behaviors, and attitudes that are accepted within the family, which are passed down from Generation to generation - something that is unique to your family.

b) Family traditions help to interact normally with society, make the family cohesive, strengthen family ties, and reduce the number of quarrels.

c) Parents pay attention to their children's problems and help them cope with them.

6. Find information about "Respect for grandparents" tradition. Answer _____

a) A very important tradition that children should observe.

b) The tradition of setting the table together for dinner.

c) Preserving family memories

7. Find information about "joint games" tradition. Answer _____

a) as children grow up, can turn into the interesting and informative stories.

b) Joint games played by adults and children (board games, sports, intellectual games, card games, etc.).

c) Parents pay attention to their children's problems and help them cope with them.

8. Find out in which paragraph the traditions are listed. Answer _____

a) 1 paragraph

b) 3 paragraph

c) 2 paragraph

9. Find information about "Cultural and educational event" tradition.

Answer _____

a) Even if you haven't received anything, choose something symbolic and start the old tradition of passing things down from generation to generation.

b) Visit museums, exhibitions, performances, and good movies together with your family.

c) The tradition of setting the table together for dinner.

10. Find information about "bedtime stories" tradition. Answer _____

a) This is when, on a certain day of the month/week, the whole family gathers for tea/ice cream/pizza (the list can go on) and spends time together.

b) Bedtime stories that, as children grow up, can turn into the interesting and informative stories.

c) A very important tradition that children should observe.

