

ONLINE EXERCISE

LESSON 6 - Narrative Tenses

Listen to PART 1 of the audio and choose the correct answer.

1. What does the opening suggest about Frank's emotional situation?

A. He was mainly frustrated by his parents' inability to provide him with a luxurious lifestyle.

B. He was struggling with the collapse of the future and family life he had expected.

C. He believed his parents' separation would make it easier for him to become independent.

2. Why does Frank's behavior initially seem “almost like a game”?

A. He treats impersonation as an exciting challenge without fully confronting its seriousness.

B. He assumes that the people he deceives already know his real identity.

C. He sees his new identities as a temporary way to earn money legally.

3. What does the expression “could open doors” imply in this context?

A. Frank's disguises allow him to enter places that are physically restricted.

B. His confidence and appearance help him gain access to opportunities and people's trust.

C. His professional knowledge makes him qualified to perform unfamiliar jobs.

4. What is the main contrast in this part of the story?

- A. Frank wants independence, but he refuses to make decisions for himself.
- B. Frank appears mature and capable, even though he is still a teenager avoiding painful problems.
- C. Frank wants to impress his parents, but he is uninterested in financial success.

Listen to PART 2 of the audio and choose the correct answer.

Number the events from 1 to 5 in the order they are mentioned in the audio.

- a. Frank's ability to create new identities becomes a weakness that prevents him from living authentically.
- b. Carl Hanratty begins pursuing Frank.
- c. Frank's lies create further problems, despite helping him escape his circumstances.
- d. The speaker questions what Frank is truly seeking through his actions.
- e. The speaker acknowledges the harm Frank caused while inviting listeners to understand his motives.

