Can I have some time off?

1 Read the email. What two things does Bill ask Sarah about?

flight information holiday dates hotel information office meeting working at home

Hi Sarah,

Good news! We have a two-day meeting with a client in Austin, Texas to talk about the new product range. The dates are Thursday 22nd and Friday 23rd November.

Can I work at home on Monday 19th and Tuesday 20th November to prepare for the meeting? My flight is on Wednesday 21st November.

Also, could I please take some time off from Monday 26th November to Wednesday 28th November to visit Texas?

Thanks,

Bill

B What does Paul ask the company to do?

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ send the correct order | ☐ change the invoice |
| ☐ give him his money back | |

Dear Sir/Madam,

I'm writing to complain about our order (Ref AB 2365) from 10th July.

Our order was for twelve computer screens and ten computer keyboards, but two screens were missing and four keyboards were broken. The packages were very damaged.

Can you send two more computer screens, please? And could you also replace the keyboards?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Paul Finnegan

2 Read the email again. Answer the questions.
