

SERC VOCABULARY

Read each definition below and select the correct matching term.

A person who role plays as a trained or untrained individual who may assist in the rescue under the direction of the competitor.

A person who role plays as a victim type such as; weak or tired, injured, unconscious, or non-swimmer.

To assess the situation, plan a course of action to overcome the problem, perform actions to effect the rescue, and provide aftercare to the victims.

To select an appropriate equipment item that is available in the competition area and is able to be utilized effectively during the rescue.

To make safe from imminent danger with a rescue technique.

To safely remove the victim from the water and position them safely on the beach, dock, or deck.