

1 Read the information. Complete the diagram with names A–D and positive (+) or negative (–) sentences in the present perfect.

Four children are sitting at a table. There are three girls and one boy, called Harry. The boy's sitting opposite Katy. They're talking about the start of this school year. What have they done?

Betty's sitting between Harry and Katy. Betty's won three volleyball matches.

Harry hasn't eaten pizza, but he's cooked pasta for his parents.

The child opposite Holly hasn't lost a game of chess.

A girl next to Katy hasn't drunk coffee, but she's seen two eagles.

The girl who's made two new friends hasn't been to the theatre.

