V. Read the passage and choose the correct answer for each question.

If you are the type of person who loves to meet many different people from different cultures and social status, then the city life is better for you. The city is where people from all different background and status come to work and live because everything is so centralized in the city. The city's population is also more concentrated, so you also have a higher chance of meeting people. In the country, the distance between other people is harder, so it is less convenient to meet other people. Hence, if you want a busy social life, the city is better.

If you have asthma or you are really sensitive to pollution, then the country lifestyle is best for you. In the country there is much less pollution because there are less cars, traffic and industrial plants in the country. There are also more trees, rivers and other natural scenery. If you want your kids to run around in open and safe environments, then the country is also much better.

ADVANCED ENGLISH

Grammar: Adjectives and Adverbs

★ Adjectives

Adjectives describe a noun and are used in front of nouns.

Adjectives can be used on their own, without a noun, after the verbs: be, become, feel, look

★ Order of adjectives

- When we have more than one adjective, we use this order:

Examples

Opinion	lovely, difficult
Size	large, long
Age	old, second-hand
Shape	round, square
Temperature	hot, cold
Colour	green, blue
Material	wooden, plastic
Purpose (what it is for?)	swimming
Final noun	swimming pool

In the 'material' and 'purpose' categories, we can have nouns used as adjectives: plastic, steel, swimming, football...

★ Adjectives ending -ing and -ed

- Adjectives ending -ing describe something that we are reacting to.
- Adjectives ending -ed describe our feelings and reactions.

My work was tiring. It made me tired.

This film is interesting. I'm interested in the film.

★ Adverbs

- Adverbs describe a verb. An adverb says how, when or where something happens.

Many 'how' adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective.

slow – slowly quick – quickly careful – carefully

- Some adverbs have the same form as adjectives. Examples include: fast, hard, early, late, high, low, right, wrong.

This train is very fast. (adj)

This train goes fast. (adv)

It was a very hard question. (adj)

We worked hard. (adv)

★ Adverbs of degree (intensifiers)

- Adverbs of degree are used with adjectives to describe how much.

Peter is very/really/extremely happy at his new school.

Other adverbs of degree are: a little, a bit, quite, terribly.
