Last summer, I went on a holiday to Langkawi, an island in Malaysia. It was one of the most (1) _____ trips I have ever had. The island has a lot of (2) _____ beaches with clear blue water and soft, white sand. The weather was sunny and warm, which made it perfect for swimming and sunbathing.

During my stay, I also got to (3) _____ the island. I visited the famous Sky Bridge, went for a boat ride and saw the beautiful mangrove forests. The natural scenery was truly (4) _____. I took so many photos!

What I also loved was the local (5) _____. I tried delicious seafood, nasi lemak and fresh tropical fruits. The people there were very (6) _____ and always smiled. They made me feel welcome and at home.

This holiday was not only fun, but also taught me a lot about the local (7) _____. I learned about their traditions, dances and way of life. It was a great experience, and I hope to go back again someday to (8) _____ more of this amazing island.
