

Name: _____

Date: _____

Frogs

Frogs are small animals that live near water. A baby frog is called a tadpole. A tadpole hatches from an egg and swims like a fish. Slowly it grows four legs and loses its tail. Then it becomes a frog. Frogs have long back legs for jumping. They catch bugs with their sticky tongues. Most frogs are green or brown so they can hide in the grass.

Use the word bank to fill in each blank.

|       |         |      |      |        |
|-------|---------|------|------|--------|
| water | tadpole | legs | bugs | tongue |
|-------|---------|------|------|--------|

1. Frogs live near _____.
2. A baby frog is called a _____.
3. Frogs jump with their long back _____.
4. Frogs eat _____.
5. A frog's _____ is sticky.

Circle the two pictures that show a frog growing up.

