

Phrasal verbs

- 1 Complete the text with the correct form of the phrasal verbs in the box.

bring up find out get on grow up make up run out of set up take up

When I was a child I used to

(1) stories all the time and I wanted to become a famous writer. Now, I'm not famous, but I am a writer! My parents were quite strict. They (2) my brother and me without any electronics or TV, so we (3) with books and games. We used to start a chess game at the beginning of the week and we tried to finish it by the weekend. Sometimes we (4) time, so we continued playing on Sunday. My brother and I generally (5) well with each other except when one of us (6) that the other had moved a chess piece in secret.

I still play now that I'm an adult. Last year I even (7) electronic chess, although playing against the computer isn't as much fun as playing with my brother. This year I'm planning to (8) a chess club in the village where I live.

Describing people

- 2 Correct the adjective in bold with an adjective that means the opposite. You are given the first letter.
- Our football coach is very easy-going and makes us train for six hours every week. s
 - John is very hard-working and spends a lot of time on the sofa watching TV. l
 - Tamara's so stupid, I'm sure she'll get a good job in the future. c
 - The street was noisy because there was no traffic. q
 - My uncle gave me a new phone for my birthday. He's so mean. g
 - Don't push in front of other people, Jack! It's polite. r
 - They felt calm as they were waiting for news of the election. a
 - She's very shy and loves talking in public. c
- 3 Complete the sentences with an adjective formed from the word in brackets.
- My best friend always seems, even when things aren't going well. (cheer)
 - The train service here is The trains are always late. (reliable)
 - Human babies are for much longer than most animals. (help)
 - She looks in that long dress. (beauty)
 - The weather was so that we had to cancel the barbecue. (pleasant)
 - He's always telling lies. He's completely (honest)
 - The book became a film and it won an Oscar. (success)
 - I found your instructions very and managed to set up the computer by myself. (help)
 - Marc gets angry quickly if he has to wait. He's so (patient)
 - Lizzie won't talk to me. I don't know why she's so (friendly)