

SINCE, FOR, ALREADY, YET, OR JUST?

THANKSGIVING

Complete the sentences with: since - for - already - yet - just

1. My family has _____ prepared the turkey, so we can put it in the oven now.
2. We have celebrated Thanksgiving together _____ 2015.
3. My aunt hasn't made the pumpkin pie _____.
4. The children have _____ decorated the dining room with autumn leaves.
5. My grandparents have lived in Boston _____ more than twenty years.
6. Have you set the table _____?
7. My mother has cooked Thanksgiving dinner _____ early this morning.
8. We've _____ finished eating, so we don't need any more food.
9. Sarah hasn't tried cranberry sauce _____.
10. Our neighbors have invited us to their Thanksgiving dinner every year _____ we moved to this town.
11. My brother has worked in the kitchen _____ three hours.
12. Have your cousins arrived _____, or are they still on the way?
13. I've _____ washed the dishes, so the kitchen is clean now.
14. We've been thankful for our family and friends _____ generations.
15. My dad has known our neighbors _____ he was a child.
16. The guests have _____ arrived, so let's welcome them!

