Watch the video and answer True or false

Pregunta 1

1. According to the video, introducing the written spelling of a new word should occur prior to drilling its spoken form. TRUE FALSE

2. Drilling is recommended in the video as an effective technique when introducing vocabulary with proper stress and intonation. TRUE FALSE

3. Counting mouth movements while articulating a word can serve as a kinesthetic technique to identify syllable count. TRUE FALSE

4. When students cannot identify the primary stress, the teacher should contrast the word by artificially placing stress on each different syllable. TRUE FALSE

5. Teachers should always write out the complete phonetic transcription of every new word introduced on the board. TRUE FALSE

Pregunta 6

6. In standard IPA dictionary notation, the primary stress mark is placed directly after the stressed syllable. TRUE FALSE

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. Teaching learners how to interpret dictionary transcriptions promotes learner autonomy in pronunciation. TRUE FALSE

8. The pedagogical concepts presented in the video are based on Gerald Kelly's book 'How to Teach Pronunciation'. TRUE FALSE

9.Finger counting is discouraged as a visual tool for syllable segmentation because it distracts from auditory processing. TRUE FALSE

10. In the target word 'beautiful', primary stress falls on the final syllable. TRUE FALSE

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS