

Wangari's Trees Of peace

READ AND MATCH

|                                 |                                                                   |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| umbrella of trees        | Very young trees.                                                 |
| barren                   | A book about something that really happened.                      |
| seedlings                | The name of the woman who started planting trees in her backyard. |
| Kenya                    | How Wangari talked the women into helping plant trees.            |
| a true story/ nonfiction | Land without trees or plants.                                     |
| home                     | What Wangari did to keep the trees from being cut down.           |
| convinces                | A name that the author gave to the trees in Kenya.                |
| Wangari                  | The village or country where you live.                            |
| protects                 | The country in Africa where Wangari grew up.                      |