going out and staying in

1 A Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the sentences.

1 I _____ a really good programme last night.
a had b went c watched

2 Do you want to _____ on a tour when we visit Berlin?
a go to b go c have

3 Let's _____ an evening out.
a go to b have c go

4 Shall we _____ the market to buy bread?
a go b go to c see

5 We're going to _____ my brother's band play.
a see b go c go to 6 We're _____ out with friends tomorrow night.

a seeing b going to c going

B Complete the article with the words in the box.

a basketball game	a film	a meal out
a night in	for a coffee	some friends round
some live music	to the theatre

Fun activities for staying in or going out

How do you prefer to spend your free evenings? Do you like to have [1] _____ so you can sit in front of the TV and watch a programme or two? Or do you prefer to have [2] _____ at a restaurant, or see [3] _____ at the cinema? Whether you stay in or go out, there are always fun things to do. For example, you can stay at home and see [4] _____. Yes, you can watch your favourite band using virtual reality (VR). Or if you prefer sport, you can watch [5] _____ or any other sport using VR. You could also have [6] _____ to your home and do an online escape room together. That's a game where you have sixty minutes to find clues and solve problems to win.

If you prefer to go out, you could go [7] _____ to see a play. If you want a quieter time, you could find an unusual place to go [8] _____, like a café in a treehouse!

LIVEWORKSHEETS