Ex 17. Rewrite the following sentences as long as the meaning is unchangeD. using modals

1. It is better for you to talk to your parents about your problem.

You _____

2. If I were you, I would study hard to pass the exam

You _____

3. It is a good idea for us to learn vocabulary every day.

We _____

4. I'd advise you to tell the truth to your family

You _____

5. It is not neccesary for us to wear uniforms every day

I _____

6. We aren't allowed to drive without wearing a helmet.

We _____

7. It is necessary for young people to plan their future career carefully

Young people _____

8. It is very important to pay attention to the content of the lesson.

You _____

Ex 18. Rewrite each sentence so that the new sentence has a similar meaning to the original one, using modals

1. Parents find it unnecessary to satisfy all their children's needs.

– Parents don't _____

2. My advice is that you try to avoid all junk food

– You _____

3. Am I required to show my identification card to process a bank transfer?

– Do _____

4. Swearing every time you need to emphasize something is not a good idea

– You _____

5. In the UK, you are not allowed to buy or drink alcohol in pubs or shops if you are under 18.

– In the UK, you _____

6. Residents in this city are strictly forbidden to engage in any illegal religious activities.

– Residents in this city _____

7. It's my brother's duty to clean the house every weekend

– My brother _____

8. Visitors are not allowed to leave the island because of a terrible storm.

– Visitors _____

Ex 19. Rewrite the following sentences as long as the meaning is unchanged, using modal verbs

1. I advise him to stop wasting money on lottery.

He _____

2. It's necessary for you to finish your homework before going to bed

You _____

3. It isn't necessary for you to bring food and drink for lunch.

You _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS