Chapter 13-14

I. PRE-READING

A. Vocabulary in Context (SET A)

Read carefully. Fill in the blanks with the best word. Identify the parts of speech inside the parentheses.

compare	contrast	effortlessly	madness	disappointment	disaster
breakthrough	unreachable	basic	permanently	devastating	pride

1. On the first day of junior high, we learned the _____ ( ) rules of our new school.
2. For the English project, we need to _____ ( ) life in Taipei with life in Kaohsiung to see how they are similar.
3. Can you _____ ( ) the differences between a night market and a morning market?
4. After practicing every day, Linda had a big _____ ( ) and finally passed her English speaking test.
5. Trying to study all night for an exam is just _____ ( ). It will drive your brain crazy!
6. There was a look of _____ ( ) on his face when the famous boba shop sold out of milk tea.
7. My parents looked at me with _____ ( ) when I won first place in the school speech contest.
8. The powerful typhoon was a terrible _____ ( ) that caused flooding in many streets.
9. The strong winds were _____ ( ) to the beautiful old trees in the park, knocking many of them down.
10. Because of the heavy landslide, the mountain village is now _____ ( ) by road.
11. I accidentally spilled soy sauce on my white uniform shirt, and now it is _____ ( ) stained.
12. My older brother rides his scooter through the busy traffic so _____ ( ) that he makes it look easy.

B. Word Forms

Choose the correct word form.

effortless	permanently	devastating
1. Jay is so good at basketball that making a three-pointer looks like an _____ ( ) action for him.	1. Moving to another city is a _____ ( ) change, so you will have to say goodbye to your classmates.	1. A severe earthquake can easily _____ ( ) an entire city and destroy thousands of buildings.
2. My older brother rides his scooter through the busy traffic so _____ ( ) that he makes it look easy.	2. I accidentally spilled soy sauce on my white uniform shirt, and now it is _____ ( ) stained.	2. The strong winds were _____ ( ) to the beautiful old trees in the park, knocking many of them down.
3. If you put enough _____ ( ) into studying every day, your English grades will definitely improve.	3. Buying a house gives a family a feeling of _____ ( ) because they know they won't have to move again.	3. After the powerful typhoon left the island, we saw the terrible _____ ( ) of flooded streets and broken bridges on the news.

LIVEWORKSHEETS