8/2

Read the article (on the top of the page). Which piece of advice is the most useful for you personally and why?

Do you find it easy to break the ice when meeting new people? What is easy and difficult about it?

8/3 fill in

Study the phrases highlighted in the article. Then complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, including the word given in capitals.

1 He started talking to her in the hallway. STRUCK
He _____ with her in the hallway.

2 She gave the impression of being very self-confident. ACROSS
She _____ being very self-confident.

3 Alice commented on how nice his shoes were. PAID
Alice _____ about his shoes.

4 I immediately liked him. TOOK
I _____ immediately.

5 We found it really funny. LAUGH
We really _____ about it.

6 I didn't really like her friends when I met them. OFF
I didn't really _____ with her friends when I met them.

Complete this game (link clickable in the task in classroom)

https://wordwall.net/resource/123221851?wwmethod=link

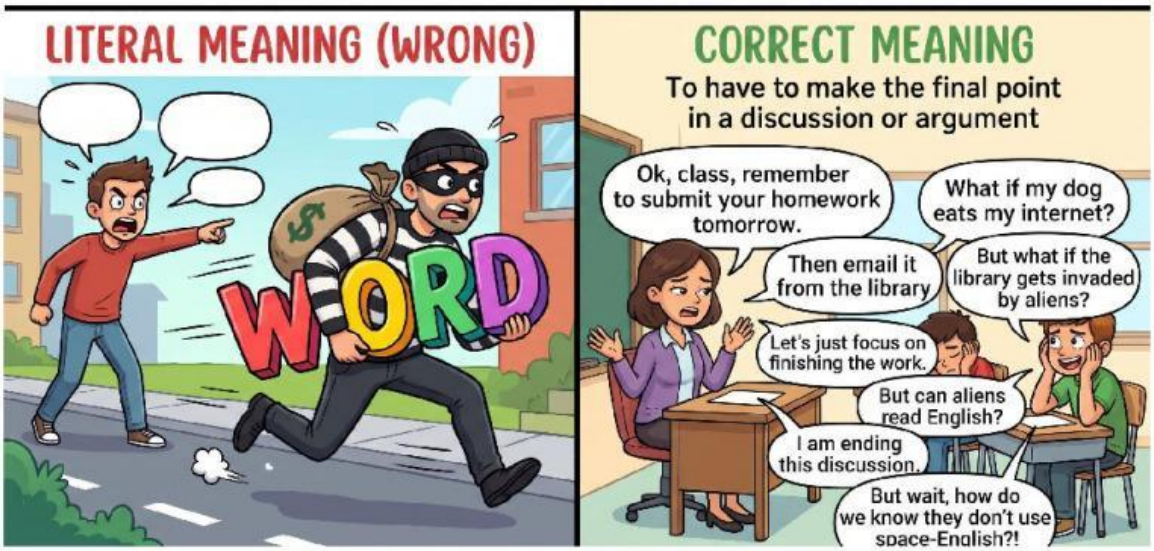

Choose one of the phrases from the game above and try out gemini/chat gpt, any type of AI. Generate a picture where there will be two sides: one is the literal meaning of the phrase (wrong) and one is the correct meaning of the phrase. The phrase itself must be included in the picture. Let's see how well you can prompt:) You can add a fun spin to the picture by prompting some ridiculous circumstances or details.

Attach the picture to the task in classroom.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Example:

INSIST ON HAVING THE LAST WORD

LIVEWORKSHEETS