MODALS: OBLIGATION, NECESSITY AND ADVICE

Instructions: Complete each sentence with the correct modal expression from the box. Use each expression more than once if necessary.

Word Bank:

must – mustn't – have to – has to – don't have to – doesn't have to – should – shouldn't – ought to

1. You _____ study harder if you want to pass the English exam.
2. Students _____ use their phones during the exam. It is prohibited.
3. My sister _____ wear a uniform at her new school. It is a school rule.
4. You _____ eat so much junk food. It's bad for your health.
5. We _____ bring any food to the party because everything is already prepared.
6. You _____ wear a seatbelt when you drive a car. It's the law.
7. He _____ go to the doctor because he has a terrible stomachache.
8. You _____ worry about the test. You studied very hard!
9. People _____ smoke inside hospitals.
10. I _____ get up early tomorrow because it's Saturday.
11. You _____ drink more water when you exercise.
12. My father _____ work on Sundays because his company is closed.
13. We _____ respect other people's opinions.
14. You _____ touch that electrical cable! It's dangerous.
15. She _____ finish her homework before she goes out. Her parents require it.
16. You _____ spend so much time playing video games. You need to study.
17. Students _____ bring their dictionaries tomorrow. The teacher will provide them.
18. He _____ apologize to his friend. He was very rude to him.
19. I _____ take this medicine three times a day. That's what the doctor prescribed.
20. You _____ be quiet in the library. People are trying to study.

Write:

One sentence expressing obligation. _____

One sentence expressing prohibition. _____

One sentence giving advice. _____

One sentence expressing no necessity. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS