Match the vocabulary items to their correct definitions:

1) Bonus 	A. Time worked in addition to one's normal working hours, often compensated at a higher pay rate.
2) Company car 	B. A daycare facility provided by an employer at the workplace to look after employees' young children.
3) Days off in lieu 	C. A vehicle provided by an employer for an employee's business and private use.
4) Flextime 	D. Working only a fraction of the standard workweek, usually fewer than 30 to 35 hours.
5) Full-time 	E. A reduction in the price of a company's goods or services offered exclusively to its employees.
6) Over-time 	F. An extra sum of money given to an employee as a reward for good performance or hitting targets.
7) Paid holiday 	G. A financial plan into which an employee and employer make regular payments to provide an income for the employee when they retire.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8) Part-time 	H. Time off given to an employee to compensate for extra hours they worked outside their normal schedule.
9) Pension scheme 	I. A fitness or exercise facility located on-site at the workplace for employees to use.
10) Salary 	J. Working the standard number of hours required by a business, typically around 35 to 40 hours per week.
11) Staff discount 	K. A fixed regular payment, typically expressed as an annual sum, paid monthly or bi-monthly.
12) Wages 	L. A system that allows employees to choose their own start and finish times, as long as they work a required number of hours.
13) Work crèche 	M. Money paid to an employee for work done, usually calculated on an hourly, daily, or piecework basis.
14) Work gym 	N. Time away from work that an employee is legally entitled to take off while still receiving their regular pay.

LIVEWORKSHEETS