

Narrative Prompt

You performed well at school and got a good report card. You were rewarded with a free plane ticket to travel to a place of your choice. Write a story to tell about your visit to the place you chose.

In your story be sure to tell:

- why you chose that place;
- how you felt;
- one or two exciting things that happened while you were at this place;
- whether anyone was there with you;
- whether or not you would go to the place again;
- how the trip ended.
