Elisabeth

I was born and raised in a small village located three miles to the southeast of Colchester in England. I've lived here since I was born. I grew up surrounded by a large family. I have three siblings. There are aunts and uncles on my mother's side of the family living with us as well. That's why we live in a large, detached house surrounded by a garden where my aunt grows vegetables. We all get along very well. I prefer living in urban areas so I believe I will be happier if I move to London.

Marina

I grew up in Serbia, but my parents moved to Australia when I was eight. When we moved there, we lived with mum's friends as we don't have any other relatives in the country. At first, we lived in a suburb of Sydney, but for the last three years we've been settled in a high rise downtown in the heart of Perth, which I find really exciting. I've got twin sisters. We haven't been to Serbia for the last five years, but we keep in touch with relatives through social networks.

Lena

I'm from Chicago, the USA, and I've lived here all my life. We live on the outskirts of the town near Lake Michigan. It's very peaceful and calm here – definitely my cup of tea. I was named after my granny Lenka, who was Serbian. I haven't got any brothers or sisters, but my mum's got two sisters. They live in an apartment uptown. Aunt Lily is the eldest. She says I am her favourite niece. She was raised in Belgrade and goes there every few years. I'm thinking of visiting Belgrade next year as well.
