HOME GRAMMAR LAB

How many / How much + Quantifiers | Separable Phrasal Verbs | A2+

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A. MATCH THE CLUE | 1-8

Match each meaning or form clue with the correct expression (A-H).

A. a few

B. a little

C. much

D. many

E. any

F. a lot of

G. take it out

H. put them away

1. A small number of countable things, e.g., three chairs. _____

2. A small amount of something you cannot count, e.g., water. _____

3. A large quantity before a plural noun or an uncountable noun. _____

4. Usually used for a large amount of uncountable material in negatives or questions. _____

5. Used before plural countable nouns in questions such as: How ___ cupboards? _____

6. Common in negative statements: There are not ___ shelves. _____

7. Correct object-pronoun position when removing one bag of trash. _____

8. Correct object-pronoun position when storing several clean plates. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

HOME GRAMMAR LAB

How many / How much + Quantifiers | Separable Phrasal Verbs | A2+

B. MOVE THE WORDS | 9-15

Put the words in order to make grammatically correct sentences.

9. there / how many / in the kitchen / cupboards / are / ?

10. much / isn't / in the bedroom / there / light / .

11. a few / on the shelves / there / books / are / .

12. the magazines / pick / please / up / before dinner / .

13. them / hang / up / after washing / please / .

14. how much / have / we / for the new sofa / space / do / ?

15. the clean plates / put / away / before the guests arrive / .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

HOME GRAMMAR LAB

How many / How much + Quantifiers | Separable Phrasal Verbs | A2+

C. REWRITE THE SENTENCE | 16-22

Rewrite using the word or phrase given. Keep the original meaning.

16. There are three chairs in the living room. (a few)

17. There is only a small amount of light in the closet. (a little)

18. The apartment has twenty windows. (How many)

19. The kitchen has no free space. (any)

20. Please take the garbage out. Replace the object with it.

21. Could you hang up the shirts? Replace the object with them.

22. There are not a lot of cupboards in this kitchen. (many)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

HOME GRAMMAR LAB

How many / How much + Quantifiers | Separable Phrasal Verbs | A2+

D. MULTIPLE CHOICE | 23-30

Circle ONE correct answer (A, B, C or D) for each item.

23. There is almost no light in this room. Which sentence fits best?

A. There is a little light.
B. There are a few light.
C. There is many light.
D. There are much light.

24. You can count six cupboards. Complete: How ___ cupboards are there?

A. many
B. much
C. a little
D. any of

25. There are zero clean plates. Complete: There aren't ___ clean plates.

A. any
B. much
C. a little
D. a few of

26. The sofa is large, so we need ___ space for it.

A. a lot of
B. many
C. a few
D. much of

27. Which sentence is correct when the object is the pronoun them?

A. Please put them away.
B. Please put away them.
C. Please them put away.
D. Please away put them.

28. The garbage bag is full. Which request is correct?

A. Could you take it out?
B. Could you take out it?
C. Could you it take out?
D. Could you take out them?

29. Choose the correct question about water in the bathtub.

A. How much water is there?
B. How many water is there?
C. How much waters are there?
D. How many water are there?

30. Which sentence correctly describes a small number of magazines?

A. There are a few magazines.
B. There is a little magazines.
C. There are much magazines.
D. There is many magazines.

LIVEWORKSHEETS