PHRASAL VERBS
WINTER VOCABULARY

Complete each sentence with the correct preposition or particle.

1. Temperatures are expected to drop significantly tonight, so make sure you wrap _____ warm before going outside.
2. We had to put _____ our skiing trip because the weather conditions were too dangerous.
3. The heating system broke _____ in the middle of the night, leaving us freezing.
4. I can't wait to take _____ my thick winter coat and wear lighter clothes when spring arrives.
5. The children were thrilled when the snow finally set _____, as they could go sledging.
6. You should stock _____ on firewood before the first heavy snowfall makes travelling difficult.
7. Make sure you zip _____ your jacket before stepping outside; the wind is extremely strong today.

8. The lake usually freezes _____ completely by January, allowing people to go ice skating.
9. The roads were so slippery that several cars skidded _____ the road and ended up in the snow.
10. The snow gradually melted _____ as temperatures began to rise towards the end of February.

LIVEWORKSHEETS