Part 4

You will hear teenage cyclist Joe Anderson talking about his racing career in cycling so far. For questions 24–30, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

24 What does Joe say about choosing cycling as his main sport?

A He was determined to do something he really enjoyed.

B He was responding to pressure from his family.

C He was upset by his lack of ability in other events.

25 How did Joe feel after taking part in his first major cycling race?

A motivated to continue in the sport

B embarrassed about his performance

C irritated by the attitude of other competitors

26 When talking about doing different kinds of cycling races, Joe reveals

A the pleasure he gets from the variety.

B a desire to experience new challenges.

C his preference for individual events.

27 What was Joe's opinion of the summer camp he went on?

A The experience was rather discouraging.

B It was only useful for certain people.

C Some activities provided were too easy.

28 Joe thinks that a particular problem he faced

A caused him a great deal of stress.

B showed him how to win races.

C made him change his training strategy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

29 What's Joe's attitude towards certain activities of his training programme?

A He resents the time some of them take.

B He struggles to understand the advantage of them.

C He dislikes the regular schedule he follows.

30 Joe thinks that his priorities now should include

A setting aside time to spend with friends.

B listening to advice from other people.

C avoiding anything that might distract him.

→ p. 146 p. 155

LIVEWORKSHEETS