HOMEWORK 1 — INTERACTIVE PRACTICE

B2 | Vocabulary & Grammar | Student Version | No answer key

TASK 1 — Complete with the correct expression

Choose from the word bank. Write the FULL expression, not a letter. Use each expression once and change its form when necessary.

WORD BANK

feel resentful · speak up · live up to expectations · seek approval · go out of your way · feel taken for granted · stand up for yourself · set boundaries

1. After years of helping without a thank-you, Maya began to _____.

2. I finally decided to _____ when the team ignored my concerns.

3. You cannot _____ all the time; some people will always want more.

4. He constantly tries to _____ from his manager before making a decision.

5. She _____ to make her new colleague feel welcome, even staying late to help.

6. He began to _____ after repeatedly being asked to work on weekends without thanks.

7. It is possible to _____ when someone treats you unfairly, without being aggressive.

8. She is learning to _____ rather than automatically agreeing to every request.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

TASK 2 — Complete with a phrase from the bank

Use each phrase ONCE. Write the FULL phrase in the gap. Change its form when necessary.

PHRASE BANK

bottle up your feelings · put yourself last · let someone down · be true to yourself · set boundaries · go out of your way

1. Instead of telling anyone she was upset, Nina kept trying to _____.

2. When Tom stayed late to help a stranger find their lost bag, he really _____.

3. You can be considerate and still _____ when you need rest.

4. He worries that saying no will _____, even when he has a good reason.

5. It is hard to _____ when you make every decision to please others.

6. She always _____, even when she has important plans of her own.

TASK 3 — Build the correct grammar

Complete the gaps with the correct form of the words in brackets. No multiple-choice options.

1. I wish I _____ (feel) more comfortable saying no.

2. If only I _____ (decline) the invitation last weekend.

3. I _____ (not / accept) so many tasks when I was already exhausted. Use should have.

4. I wish I _____ (can / explain) my needs without apologising.

5. She _____ (explain) her limits before promising to help. Use should have.

6. If only we _____ (be) more honest during that conversation yesterday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

TASK 4 — Find and correct the mistake

Each sentence contains ONE grammar mistake. Write the COMPLETE corrected sentence.

1. I wish I can stop worrying about criticism.

2. If only I have spoken up during the meeting yesterday.

3. I should have say no when I was tired.

4. She wishes she has more time for herself.

5. We shouldn't have agreed helping with everything.

6. If only he didn't promise so much last week.

Before you submit

Check that you wrote full phrases (not letters), used the correct verb forms, and corrected the entire sentence in Task 4.

LIVEWORKSHEETS