EXPLORING THREE COLOMBIAN CITIES

Colombia has amazing cities with different climates and traditions. Cartagena, on the Caribbean coast, is hotter than Medellín and Bogotá. Many tourists visit Cartagena in December because the weather is sunny and they can swim in the warm sea. However, Medellín is famous for its pleasant spring weather all year round, so people call it 'The City of Eternal Spring'.

On the other hand, Bogotá is the biggest and coldest of the three cities. It sits high in the Andes mountains. In Bogotá, you can visit incredible museums like the Gold Museum, which opens from Tuesday to Saturday at 9:00 a.m. When tourists travel to these cities, local people are very friendly. If a tourist asks, 'Can you tell me how to get to the museum?', locals always smile and help them find the right direction.
