MADAME TUSSAUDS

One very famous place for tourists in London is Madame Tussaud's museum. Here people (1)_____ see figures of famous people made of was.

Madame Tussaud was born (2)_____ France in 1761. Her uncle, a doctor, (3)_____ wax figures of people. He opened (4)_____ museum of these figures in Paris. Marie helped (5)_____ in his work.

In 1789, during the French Revolution, Marie (6)_____ sent to prison. Here she had to copy (7)_____ heads of famous people when they were dead, including Queen Marie Antoinette's.

In 1795, Marie married François Tussaud (8)_____ in 1802 she came to London with her wax figures. Here she opened a museum and her figures can (9)_____ be seen today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS