INTERMEDIATE ADVERBS 2

Task One. Adverbs with normal and extreme adjectives. Choose the correct adverb.

1. The new sports center is really / completely / utterly popular with local residents.
2. After the final workout, everyone was absolutely / quite / fairly exhausted.
3. The instructions for the exercise were completely / extremely / utterly clear.
4. She was really / absolutely / utterly disappointed when she couldn't finish the race.
5. The yoga class was quite / extremely / absolutely relaxing after a stressful day.

Task Two. Adverb Collocations. Choose the correct adverb.

1. The new method has been highly / perfectly effective for improving endurance.
2. She felt deeply / fully embarrassed after forgetting the rules during the match.
3. The doctor was fully / bitterly aware of the risks of returning to exercise too soon.
4. The team was perfectly / terribly prepared for the final after weeks of practice.
5. The runners were deeply / highly concerned about the extreme heat during the race.

Task Three. Complete the text with the correct adverbs.

After several weeks of training, Mia felt (1)_____ prepared for her first 10K race. She knew the course would be (2)_____ difficult, but she was still excited. During the final kilometers, she became (3)_____ exhausted, but she kept going. At the finish line, she was (4)_____ delighted with her result.

LIVEWORKSHEETS