Name:_____ Date:_____

Unit 1: Shopping

Word Store 1: Shopping Reference Chart

People	Places	Objects	Actions
(regular) customer client (shop / sales) assistant manager (member of) staff butcher chemist fishmonger florist newsagent optician shopkeeper stallholder trader	baker's bookshop boutique bureau de change butcher's chemist's department store DIY store dry-cleaner's fishmonger's florist's greengrocer's jeweller's newsagent's off-licence (charity / second-hand) shop kiosk (street) market supermarket toyshop the high street (in) the sales shopping centre / mall	bank card cash cheque book credit card store card Switch card a bargain (mail order) catalogue carrier bag designer label goods faulty goods product price rate of exchange receipt sales tax (VAT) cash desk shop window till checkout 'pay here'	borrow (money) from sb lend (money) to / lend sb money afford buy sth can / can't afford cut (their) prices exchange sth (for sth else) get a discount go shopping order sth pay cash / by cheque pay a deposit pay for sth (at a reduced price) take sth back try sth on see to sb serve (a customer) giftwrap sth

Exercise 1: Shopping Contexts

Complete each sentence using the most suitable word or phrase from the Word Store 1 chart.

1. We do not accept personal cheques, and our card reader cannot process your _____ card. Have you got _____ with you?

2. I really cannot _____ to purchase that designer coat until I receive my month-end salary.

3. Could you tell me if I might get a _____ if I settle the entire amount in cash today?

4. On Saturday mornings, my family avoids the crowded high street and prefers browsing for fresh produce at the outdoor street _____.

5. Excuse me, could you tell me where the fitting rooms are so that I can _____ these trousers on?

CHALKIE LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. If you want the freshest cuts of beef, you should visit your local _____ rather than the large supermarket.

7. I left my wallet in my office desk, so could you please _____ me ten pounds so that I can buy lunch?

8. If you are travelling to London next week, check the rate of exchange at the _____ de change before converting your currency.

9. Many teenagers refuse to buy basic clothing because they exclusively look for garments featuring a famous designer _____.

10. When purchasing items as birthday presents, the shop assistant offered to _____ each box with ribbon at no extra charge.

Exercise 2: Shopping Definitions

Write the shopping word or expression that matches each description below.

1. A person whose job is to assist and serve shoppers in a store: _____

2. The primary retail street in a British town where most major branches are situated:

_____

3. A large retail outlet specialising in home improvement, building materials, tools, and paint:

_____

4. A shop that dispenses medicines, toiletries, and healthcare products: _____

5. A lightweight plastic or paper bag provided to transport your purchases: _____

6. A retail shop that specifically sells fresh fruit and vegetables: _____

7. A counter or financial office where international currencies can be converted: _____

8. A large retail establishment split into multiple floors, each selling a distinct category of goods:

_____

9. A small standalone booth on a pavement selling newspapers, cigarettes, and confectionery:

_____

10. The counter or electronic terminal where items are scanned and paid for in a supermarket:

_____

Exercise 3: Specialist Stores & Shopping Cloze

Choose the most suitable retail term for each blank space.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. For an expensive pair of diamond earrings or a vintage wristwatch, you should visit a reputable [butcher's / jeweller's / kiosk].

2. If your prescription glasses break or you require a comprehensive eye test, you must book an appointment with an [optician / off-licence / stallholder].

3. Wine, craft beer, and spirits to take home are sold in the United Kingdom at a licensed shop known as an [off-licence / ironmonger's / DIY store].

4. We bought a delightful bouquet of fresh lilies and red roses directly from the corner [florist's / chemist's / stationer's].

5. If a woollen jumper has a stubborn oil mark, take it to the [dry-cleaner's / newsagent's / greengrocer's] instead of washing it at home.

6. When searching for unique pre-owned books, vintage clothing, or retro furniture, many people browse their neighbourhood [boutique / charity shop / supermarket].

Exercise 4: Containers and Quantities

Word Bank: bar | bottle | box | bunch | can | carton | jar | packet | sachet | tin | tub | tube

1. a _____ of fresh milk or freshly squeezed orange juice

2. a _____ of fizzy cola or craft beer

3. a _____ of milk chocolate or scented bath soap

4. a _____ of vanilla dairy ice cream or margarine

5. a _____ of luxury chocolates or paper tissues

6. a _____ of mint toothpaste or strong craft adhesive

7. a _____ of herbal shampoo or liquid moisturiser

8. a _____ of baked beans or white gloss paint

9. a _____ of wholemeal biscuits or potato crisps

10. a _____ of ripe grapes or freshly cut flowers

11. a _____ of sparkling mineral water or red wine

12. a _____ of homemade strawberry jam or pickled onions

LIVEWORKSHEETS