

Invitations

Choose the best possibilities:

Mark: Hi, Megan. Do / Would you like to come to the cinema with me on Saturday afternoon?

Megan: Sorry, I can't. I'm free / busy . It's my grandmother's sixtieth birthday party.

Mark: That's a pity / terrible . Never mind.

• • •

Mark: Are you free / busy on Saturday afternoon, Will?

Will: Yes, I am. What ? / Why ?

Mark: Would you want / like to come to the cinema with me?

Will: Sure. What's on?

Mark: The new Smurf film.

Will: Oh no! The Smurfs are interesting / boring !

Mark: No, they aren't. They're fun.

Will: Well, I don't think so.

Mark: OK, then. Let's / Would play a computer game instead.

Will: Oh no! / Yeah ! That sounds great.

Complete the dialogue. Use the phrases:

Are you free on Saturday? • See you ! • Would you like to come on Sunday?
I'm busy. • That's a pity. • That sounds fun/good/great.

Mark: Hi, Will!
I've got some great new CDs.

Will: Sorry, Mark,
I've got football practice with the school team.

Mark:
And we have burgers for lunch – they're your favourite!

Will: But never mind.

Mark:

Will: Sure! Do you have burgers on Sunday, too?

Mark: No, we don't. We have sandwiches for lunch.

Will: That's OK. ⁶

Put the dialogue in the correct order.

- ☐ Megan: Well, I don't think so.
- ☒ Anna: Would you like to watch TV at my house on Sunday evening, Megan?
- ☐ Megan: Yeah! That sounds great.
- ☐ Anna: A fashion show.
- ☐ Anna: OK, then. Let's watch a DVD instead.
- ☐ Megan: Oh no! Fashion shows are boring!
- ☐ Anna: No, they aren't. They're great.
- ☐ Megan: Sure. What's on?

Games zone

GAME 1 PLAY

GAME 2 PLAY

GAME 3 PLAY