

Episode 5

Jimmy is told he'll _____ play football again. Cartwright tells the Blackburn team that a _____ of the match revenue will go to help Jimmy's _____. Cartwright asks Suter how Martha and her _____ are doing after her job loss. After Cartwright tells his wife about the _____, she goes to Martha's house and offers to care for her daughter, Jenie. Martha refuses. Martha tells Suter about Cartwright and Jenie. Martha goes back to talk with Mrs Cartwright and _____ for the affair with her _____. Suter and Martha _____. Tommy, the player who hurt Jimmy, visits and to apologise. Suter arrives and tells Jimmy the team will _____ him financially and they are struggling to replace him. Later, Suter pushes Jimmy in a _____ to the pub to cheer him up. Darwen _____ start to reconcile with Suter. Stokes talks about his business _____ making football kits. Doris asks after a _____ for Jimmy. Kinnaird has a falling out with his _____ over the true reason behind missing the quarter-final match. After some _____ discussions with his father about his football _____, Kinnaird uses his football contacts to help save a vital investment. Kinnaird debates the _____ of paying players with the Etonians. The Lancashire teams band together to beat the elite teams. Mr. Walsh persuades Tommy to join Blackburn to _____ Jimmy. Cartwright offers Suter the captainship (and a bonus) if they make it to the _____. Mrs Cartwright offers Martha a job at Brockshall and says she can bring Jenie. Two days later the FA Board meets _____ Kinnaird and discuss expelling Darwen and Blackburn from the cup.

Word Bank :

affair (relation extra-conjugale)
 apologises (s'excuse)
 career (carrière)
 cart (charette)
 daughter (fille, opposé de fils)
 final (finale)
 friend (ami)
 husband (mari)
 job (employ)
 kiss (s'embrasser)
 merits (avantages)
 never (jamais)
 portion (part)
 recovery (rétablissement)
 replace (remplacer)
 success (succès)
 support (soutenir, aider)
 teammates (coéquipiers)
 tense (tendu, nerveux)
 without (sans)