Brief Explanation

- if + present simple, ... will + infinitive

It's used to talk about things which might happen in the future. Of course, we can't know what will happen in the future, but this describes possible things, which could easily come true.

- If it rains, I won't go to the park.
- If I study today, I 'll go to the party tonight.
- If I have enough money, I 'll buy some new shoes.
- She 'll be late if the train is delayed.
- She 'll miss the bus if she doesn't leave soon.
- If I see her, I 'll tell her.

Application

You can use the the first conditional to talk about predictions, superstitions, future plans, warnings & threats, and offers & suggestions. These are things that are real, so this conditional is also called the future real conditional. _ If I'm late tonight, my mom will be angry.

_ If you don't hurry , you'll be late for work. / _ If you go shopping tomorrow, I'll go with you.

_ If you say it again , I'll hurt you. / _ If you eat too much chocolate cake, you 'll get fat.
