

Complete the sentences with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

Do you want to find your DREAM?

It's OK if you've got a dream, but what if you 1 (want) to find something cool to do and aren't sure what it is yet?

A lot of people who 2 (not know) what they want end up doing what other people think they should do. Ask people what their dreams are and you often find they're different from what they 3 (actually/do) right now. Be the one who's brave enough to do something different!

Think: what 4 (you/always/think) about?

5 (you/feel) excited about sport, art, music ... ? What can't you live without? If you 6 (always/complain) because you have to practise the piano and can't help being envious of the drummer in that band – quit the piano and learn the drums instead.

The important thing is to set goals to keep yourself motivated. If you stick to them, you'll soon realise that you 7 (improve) all the time and are well on the way to achieving your dream!
