Complete the text with object pronouns (me, you, etc.).

I'm not a bad person. But I'm not very lucky with gift-giving. I bought my husband a beautiful, expensive pen, but he had two of <sup>1</sup> them. When I gave <sup>2</sup> _____ the pen box, he opened <sup>3</sup> _____ and said, 'Great – number three!' I got a clock for my mother, and she hated <sup>4</sup> _____. 'Clocks are for old people, not for <sup>5</sup> _____', she said. 'I'm not old!' I found a lovely scarf for my sister. I sent <sup>6</sup> _____ to <sup>7</sup> _____ in the post but she never got <sup>8</sup> _____. Then my birthday came, and my husband, mother and sister gave <sup>9</sup> _____ a box. 'This is for <sup>10</sup> _____!' they said. 'Happy Birthday from all of <sup>11</sup> _____!' I opened <sup>12</sup> _____. Inside was a pen, a clock and a scarf. I laughed with all of <sup>13</sup> _____.
