

10A vocabulary

1. Choose the correct answer.

Badminton is a game usually played by two people, unless you play doubles. You need a couple of badminton ¹ rackets / bats / clubs and a ² ball / shuttlecock / puck. Forget feeling exhausted on a squash ³ pitch / track / court – badminton is a less demanding and tiring game. And unlike, say, football, where you need a football ⁴ court / course / pitch, or at least a large outdoor space, to play on, badminton can be played in small area, such as your garden, or part of a beach. You don't even have to have the ⁵ hoop / net / flag that usually divides the playing area in half.

2. Choose the correct answer.

Golf is a(n) ¹ team / individual / non-competitive sport played on a golf ² course / pitch / court using a set of golf ³ bats / sticks / clubs. Although you only need one ⁴ ball / cue / flag for the whole game, they often get lost during the long shots, so golfers usually carry a few. People who play golf can almost always be seen wearing a ⁵ wetsuit / cap / pair of goggles to protect them from the weather.