EXTREME

Adjectives

over using the word VERY in your writings or when you speak can be boring.

Yesterday it was VERY HOT. So I went to the park. There was a VERY BIG dog and I was VERY FRIGHTENED when it ran by me. I started to feel hungry so I bought an ice cream. The icecream was VERY BIG and VERY COLD

⇒ Isn't it boring using VERY all the time? That's why we need EXTREME ADJECTIVES...

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. MATCH

ADJECTIVE	EXTREME ADJECTIVE
1. FUNNY	A. FASCINATING
2. BIG	B. TINY
3. SMALL	C. FREEZING
4. TIRED	D. AMAZED
5. COLD	E. HILARIOUS
6. FRIGHTENING	F. HUGE
7. SURPRISED	G. EXHAUSTED
8. INTERESTING	H. TERRIFYING

1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.	7.	8.

COMPLETE WITH AN EXTREME ADJECTIVE

1. Can I close the window? I'm _____
2. My cousins live in a _____house. It has got eight bathrooms, twelve bedrooms, two gardens...
3. We went to the cinema yesterday and we watched a _____ film.
4. Paul has been working all day. He looks _____
5. The glass shattered into a thousand _____pieces

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. The audience found him _____. They couldn't stop laughing!
7. That horror movie was absolutely _____.
8. I was _____when I heard he'd been promoted.

LIVEWORKSHEETS