

Grammar in context

Let's practise!

1 Circle the correct alternative to complete the rules. 4

- We form the past perfect with had + present/past participle.
- We use the past perfect when we talk about actions that happened before/after another action or actions in the past.

2 Which two time expressions do we not use with the past perfect?

after = as soon as = by the time recently = when = while

3 Match the halves to make sentences. Then underline the thing which happened first in each sentence. Is the verb in the past simple or the past perfect?

- After we had had the argument
 - By the time I realised my mistake
 - She started reading a new book
 - They hadn't eaten anything all day
 - When they had had their dinner
 - He didn't swim
 - They had won the competition
- a they washed the dishes.
b so they had a party to celebrate.
c I did something stupid.
d because he had forgotten to bring his towel.
e so they ordered a big pizza.
f I had sent the nasty message.
g because she had finished the one she was reading.

4 Look at these important dates in history and write positive or negative sentences with the past perfect.
