

PARADISE

COLDPLAY

When she was just a girl she _____ the world

But it _____ away from her reach

So she _____ away in her sleep and _____ of

Para-para-paradise, para-para-paradise, para-para-paradise

Every time she _____ her eyes

When she _____ just a girl she expected the world

But it _____ away from her reach and the bullets catch in her teeth

Life goes on, it gets so heavy

The wheel breaks the butterfly every tear a waterfall

In the night the stormy night she'll close her eyes

In the night the stormy night away she'd fly

And dream of para-para-paradise

Para-para-paradise, Para-para-paradise, She'd dream of

para-para-paradise, Para-para-paradise, Para-para-paradise

La-la-la-la-la-la-la, La-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la,

And so lying underneath those stormy skies

She'd say, "Oh, oh, oh,..."

I know the sun must set to rise

Idioms/Metaphors

break a butterfly on a wheel use unnecessary force in destroying something fragile or insignificant

Bullets catch in her teeth

In her dreamed up paradise nothing can hurt her, nothing can go wrong

'Stormy skies'

Could be a metaphor for her life's struggles

The wheel breaks the butterfly it's assumed that the butterfly is symbolic of the girl - a beautiful and innocent creature - and the 'wheel' can be regarded as the 'Wheel of Fortune'.

'The sun is set to rise.' - reinforces her sense of optimism in life,
