

What do you Think Should Happen?

Audio	Word	Definition	«--- Move:
	RCMP	(n) ★	required/mandatory
	asset	(n) ★	to explain the meaning of something interpret	(v) ★	to not allow turban	(n) ★	strong belief in something dress code	(n) ★	Royal Mounted Canadian Police (Federal Police Force) forbid	(v) ★	something important
	uniform	(n) ★	the rules about how to dress at work
	compulsory	(a) ★	a man's headdress especially worn by Muslims and Sikhs
	faith	(n) ★	clothing required for work

Read the story about Baltej Dhillon and answer the questions.

It's 1983. Baltej Singh Dhillon and his family moves to British Columbia. Dhillon is a Sikh man and studies criminology and volunteers with the Royal Mounted Canadian Police (the RCMP). He is an asset because he can interpret between police officers and Asian immigrants. There are many immigrants in B.C. who need interpretation for important legal issues.

It's now 1988. Dhillon decides to formally apply to join the RCMP. He meets all of the entrance requirements; however, the dress code forbids beards and wearing a turban in place of the uniform hat. For many Sikh men, the turban and beard are compulsory for their religious faith.

Discussion Questions

1. How was Dhillon beneficial to the RCMP?
2. What did Dhillon do in 1988?
3. What does this mean? -» "He meets all of the entrance requirements."
4. Which requirement does Dhillon not meet?
5. What does the story say about the RCMP dress code?
6. What are Dhillon's two main issues?
7. How do you think Dhillon feels about this issue?
8. What should Dhillon do?

