

Writing Task 5: A Blog Entry about a Place I've Visited

Imagine that you have just visited a place. Write a blog entry about it. Use the plan and the writing tip for help.

Title

Par 1 Say where you are and why you are writing this blog entry.

Par 2 Describe the place and say what the weather is like there.

Par 3 Say what you have done there.

Par 4 Say why people should visit it.

You can use the relative pronouns to link information back to something you have already talked about in your writing. This way you avoid repetition!

Big Ben is a building. It is more than 150 years old.

Big Ben is a building which is more than 150 years old.

who=people / which=things/animals / that=who/which