

COMPARISON

use the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives (up ↑ or down ↓). Translate from Czech to English.

1. I think English is (important ↑) and (useful ↑) subject we have at school.
2. What's (high ↑) mountain in the world?
3. In my opinion, ice hockey is (interesting↑) sport than football because it's much (fast ↑) and there are (many ↑) fights.
4. Do you really think that disaster movies are (predictable↓) than horrors?
5. She's (attractive↓) actress of them all but at the same time she's (talented↑) one.
6. I can't decide where to go on honeymoon. Paris is (stejně romantická) jako Benátky.
7. Life in villages is (quiet↑) than life in towns. On the other hand, there are (few) shops and there's not much nightlife. Houses in villages that are close to big towns like Prague or Brno are (stejně drahé jako) living in the towns themselves.
8. What's (bad↑)-being ill or having a broken leg? It's hard to say.
9. I personally prefer spring to summer- The weather (není tak horké jako) in summer but it's still nice. But it's true that days are (long ↑) in summer than in spring.
10. Today is (bad) day ever!
11. As for me, reading books is (entertaining↓)than watching films.
It's much (slow↑) and (tiring ↑).