Adapted from: The Little Girl and the Wolf (1939) by James Thurber (1894-1961)

Reading :

One afternoon a big wolf was waiting in a dark forest for a little girl to come along. At last a little girl came along; she was carrying a basket of food to her grandmother.

"Are you carrying that basket to your grandmother?" asked the wolf.

The little girl said yes, she was. So the wolf asked her where her grandmother lived and the little girl told him and he disappeared into the wood.

When the little girl opened the door of her grandmother's house she saw that there was somebody in bed who was wearing a nightcap and nightgown. As she was approaching, she saw that it was not her grandmother : it was the wolf !

So the little girl took an automatic out of her basket and shot the wolf dead.

(Moral: It is not so easy to fool little girls nowadays as it used to be.)

Questions :

What was the wolf doing in the forest ?

What was the girl carrying ?

Who was she carrying it to ?

When she arrived at her grandmother's , who was there , in the bed ?

What did the little girl do, then ?
