

Shakespeare's plays

1) OBSERVE this chart and FILL IN the text below.

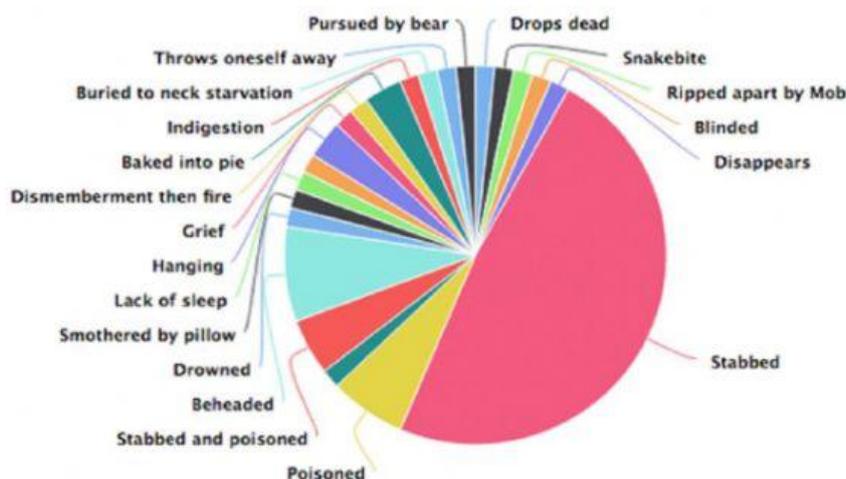

William Shakespeare wrote _____ plays in _____ different genres: the _____ including a lot of plays about British _____, the _____ including his most famous work _____ and the _____ which is the genre of plays he wrote the _____.

2) OBSERVE this chart and FILL IN the text below.

About 155 of Shakespeare's _____ die in his 38-play repertoire. And 74 of them happen onstage. The most frequent way of dying in his plays was to be _____ (_____ in French).

Causes of death in Shakespeare plays

All the deaths depicted by The Bard

It happened to _____ in Romeo and Juliet. A few more were poisoned (it happened to _____ in Romeo and Juliet). Some others had the chance to be stabbed and _____.

The second most common way of dying is to be _____.

Some characters died of a strange death too: pursued by a _____, lack of _____ or baked into a _____!

3) OBSERVE this map and ANSWER the questions below.

- a- Which continent is represented on the map? _____
- b- In what country is Romeo and Juliet taking place? _____
- c- In what country is Hamlet taking place? _____
- d- In what country is Macbeth taking place? _____
- e- In what country is Othello taking place? _____
- f- In what country is A Midsummer Night's Dream taking place? _____
- g- What are the 3 plays set in France? _____, _____ and _____
- h- After England, which country is his favourite (where a lot of his plays are set)? _____
- i- Guess in which play is there a character pursued to death by a bear? _____
- j- Which play seems to be set near Stratford-upon-Avon? _____
- k- Which play is set in Spain? _____
- l- Which play entirely takes place at sea? _____
- m- Is there any play set in the USA? _____ Why? _____