Listen to the text.
For statements 1-5 choose True if the statement is true according to the text, False if it is false.
You will listen to the text twice.

1 Everyone in Julia's school is learning at least three languages. True   False

2 Julia and her friends have learnt a lot of Japanese.   True   False

3 Julia and her friends are going to a competition for primary school students.

                                                                True   False

4 Julia's team started getting ready for the competition in May. True   False

5 Julia's falling behind because she was absent from Japanese classes.

                                                                True   False