

Too, enough, as ... as

1. Rewrite these sentences but keep the same meaning. Use as ... as, not as ... as

1. American TV series are more violent than European series.

European series aren't as violent as American TV series .

2. Soaps are interesting, but game shows are equally exciting.

Game shows _____.

3. Computer games are more popular with today's teenagers than TV programmes.

TV programmes

4. Football programmes on TV are exciting. Football programmes on the radio are equally exciting.

Football programmes on the radio _____.

5. Watching horror films in the cinema is scarier than watching them at home.

Watching horror films at home _____.

6. Books are more informative than TV documentaries.

TV documentaries _____.

2. Complete the sentences with the verb to be and too or not ... enough plus the adjective given.

1. This film is for adults, and Aisha is only fifteen.

She isn't old enough (old) to see it.

2. This game show _____ (easy). Everybody always wins.

3. This cartoon _____ (original). It's exactly the same as all the others.

4. Owen needs to improve. He _____ (good) to be in the first team.

5. It _____ (hot) in here. Can you open the window?

6. I can't understand this film. The story _____ (confusing)!

7. That horror film was awful. It _____ (scary). I was so bored I fell asleep!

3. Complete the sentences with the correct words.

1. He's 50. He's _____ old to be a professional football player.

2. When you're 14, you aren't old _____ to drive.

3. I can't buy that computer. It's £600 and I've only got £450. It's too _____.

4. She plays the guitar really well. She's _____ enough to become a professional musician.

5. Those shoes are size ten and your feet are size eight. They're too _____ for you.