BRIEF INTRODUCTION

In any musical composition, repetition of motifs or phrases is allowed for as long as it is necessary. More often than not, the refrain is repeated for so many times. There are also times that only a certain section is needed to be repeated. When this repetition is done in a musical score, it will turn as long as how many pages that the viewers may find it boring to look at. Therefore, it is important that repeat marks and symbols in repeated sections are used and you need to understand and identify their meaning when you see them in a musical score.

SYMBOLS IN REPEATED SECTIONS

1. Repeat Sign

This sign is the most common repeat mark. It is represented by the double bar with two dots. This is marked before and after the measures to be repeated twice. If the measure is to be repeated thrice, the mark 3x is indicated above it.

2. Multiple Endings/ Variations

The use of this repeat sign is called second ending. In this mark, the first bracket indicated by the number 1 is the first to be played. And when you repeat playing, the second bracket indicated by the number 2 is to be played.

REPEAT MARKS

1. Da Capo (D.C.)- Da Capo means you have to go back to the beginning.
2. Dal Segno - Dal Segno means sign. It indicates an additional mark other than Coda and Fine.
3. al Fine- The word Fine means end. Al Fine means up to the end.
4. Da Capo al Fine (D.C. al Fine)- This means to repeat from the beginning until the word Fine.
5. Coda - It is the same as refrain or chorus.
6. Da Capo al Coda (D.C. al Coda)- This means to repeat from the beginning and proceed to Coda sign.
7. Dal Segno al Fine (D.S. al Fine)- It means to go back at the sign and end at Fine.
